(Coventry St Michael) Mariae Hinton Faeminae Lectissimae Vxori Dilectae Probae et Pi- Maritvs Amoris Hoc Svi Monvmentvm Posvit. Ouae pietatis eras, quae relligionis amore,
Et matronali ciinctis gravitate probata, Vivens et morions constans exemplar amicis Vivendi in vita, moriendi in morte relinquis. Sic tibi, sic vivit vitac bona fama pcractac ; Sic tibi, sic vitae constat spes viva perennis. Obiit Annum agens tricessimum Aprilis 27°, 1594. [Translation:— To Maria Hinton, a woman of a thousand, a wife beloved, righteous, and dutiful, her husband has set up this memorial of his affection. Approved by all for holiness of life: And love, and all that can adorn a wife: Alive or dying thou dost ever give: A pattern how to die and how to live: Thus lives thy good report of life well passed: And certain hope of life that aye shall last. She died in her 30th year, April 27th, 1594.
